

WELCOME

As Christians who believe Jesus will return one day, we are called to lives of "active waiting." Active waiting refers to how we respond to God's grace. Do we live day in and day out with the realization that God wants to use us in his kingdom work. When we live this way, life is exciting and full of meaning and purpose, for we are involved with God in his divine activity to save and bless the world. – Bob Ericson

Lectionaries ----- SUMMER 2022

SERMON | "Active Waiting"

TEACHER | Bob Ericson

TEXT | Luke 12:32-40 & Hebrews 11:1-3, 8-16

Digest The Word

Read the scripture passages from this week's Sunday's Worship Service and reflect on the sermon and on these questions to help you live out God's Word in your everyday life.

- How did this passage/sermon challenge or encourage you?
- What questions do you have about this topic?
- What does this passage teach you about who God is?
- What are the personal implications for you?
- What does this mean for the Church as a whole?

Read It

Read Chapter 12, "Living in the Kingdom Day by Day" in "The Good and Beautiful Life" by James Bryan Smith. Reflect on how Smith's insights apply to your life and act on them.

Watch It

"Beatitudes" an 8 part series available on Right Now Media, Pastor Matt Chandler takes us through the Beatitudes and shows what it means to live in the kingdom of God. As we "actively wait" for our Lord's return, Jesus teaches us what the blessed life really looks like.

Live It

As you go into the coming week, look for a person who needs an unexpected word of encouragement, or an intentional act of kindness, or a promise of Scripture, or a lifting up in prayer – and do it! That's what "active waiting" for Christ's Second Coming is all about.

Flowers at the altar are in celebration of the wedding anniversary of Don and Nadine Lilleskov.
