TITLE: "Sowers of Good Seed"

TEACHER: Tim Boettger

FOCUS: One very common illustration that God uses of human beings here on the earth is the idea that we are all seed sowers. This idea helps us understand that God has given us the awesome privilege and potential of great influence. How we choose to grow and use our power as seed sowers is a choice that each of us makes many times in our lifetimes. The constant encouragement of Scripture is for you and I to keep maturing as sowers of good seed. In the end we will all reap a harvest of what we have sown.
